

MEDIA INFORMATION

For more information, contact:

Alyssa Bechhold, Public Relations Director
Hellman

a.bechhold@hellman.com

319-234-7055

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CITY LAUNDERING ANNOUNCES CHANGE IN RESPONSIBILITY Longtime Employee Becomes Image Apparel Specialist

OELWEIN, Iowa (October 24, 2006) – City Laudinging is pleased to announce that veteran employee, Floyd Clark, has recently accepted the position of Image Apparel Specialist with the company. He is responsible for sales of corporate apparel including polos, shirts and jackets. Clark joined City Laudinging in 1986. Prior to this new position, he spent 16 years as a route supervisor and three years as a route salesman. Clark is married with two sons.

Founded in 1906, City Laudinging Company supplies textile rental services on a weekly basis to thousands of businesses throughout Northeast Iowa and Southwest Wisconsin. The company is now celebrating its 100th year in business. Services include uniform rental, towel rental, dust control services, restroom services and personalized image apparel. City Laudinging Company is headquartered in Oelwein, Iowa, and employs more than 60 individuals.

###